JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN SILK SOCIETY.

AT a convention which met at Baltimore on the 11th of December last, composed of a number of gentlemen from various parts of the Union distinguished for their public services, patriotism and practical intelligence, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted after full discussion, in the course of which a great mass of facts and valuable information was elicited:

"Resolved, That it is the deliberate opinion of this Convention, that Silk may be grown in all the United States, not only for domestic purposes, but as a valuable article of commercial export—the giving an active employment to American labor, and retaining millions of dollars in our country, that are annually sent out for the purchase of silk goods.

"Resolved, That a National Silk Journal ought to be established under the auspices of the Executive Committee; and all the funds over and above the support of said paper, ought to be devoted to the advancement of the silk cause in the U. S.

"Resolved, That a National Site Journal
all the funds over and above the support
advancement of the silk cause in the U. S.
